1 John 5. Chapter. 14, 15. verses.

And this is that assurance that we have in him, that if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us; And if we know that he heareth us whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the Petitions which we have desired of him.

Little Child, or whatsoever thou art that readest this Book, before I come to the chief matter contained therein, I shall beg of thee to prepare thy heart for Prayer, and then to seek the Lord in thy prayer, and no doubt, but what thou desiredst in thy Petitions, the Lord in his due time will yield thee a comfortable return to thy Soul's happinesse and content: And before I come to shew thee what thou oughtest to pray for, I shall first shew thee in a few words, what Prayer is.

Prayer is a serious and devout lifting up of our hearts to God, in the Name of Jesus Christ, either to crave things needful, or to give thanks for mercies received, Rom. 8. 26.

The Spirit helpeth our infirmities, for we know not how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit it self maketh request for us with sighs that cannot be expressed.

A Prayer for Sabbath-day in the morning.

Psal. 119. v. 170. O let my supplication come before thee, deliver me according to thy word.

O Lord God Almighty, and Ever-living Father, Lord of the Sabbath, and Fountain of all Wisdome, I do not present these my supplications before thee upon mine own righteousness, but in thy great Mercies, in the which I only believe and put my confidence in : O Lord I beseech thee most mercifully to look upon me, who am by reason of sin a most vile and wicked creature : It is thou, O Lord, and thou alone canst make me clean, therefore I must cast my self wholly on thee, and thy Son Christ Jesus. O Lord, I have great cause to extol and magnifie thy glorious Name for preserving me this night past : Thou hast kept me from the sleep of death, blessed be thy Name for it, thou hast made me to rest quietly under the shadow of thy wings, and now Lord I beseech thee to protect me this day with thy mighty hand from all dangers both of soul and bodie : mortifie and kill in me all carnal lusts, unlawful pleasures, and evil affections, that they may have no dominion over me: but O Lord, give me a contrite heart, to bewail the sins of my youth, and let me finde comfort in thy mercies for the pardoning of my sins: Sanctifie my heart, O Lord, that I may sanctifie this thy most holy Day: Make me, O Lord, to honour thee as a Creator, love thee as a Redeemer, and hope and trust in thee as my only Saviour: O Lord let me not speak my own words, nor think my own thoughts on this thy day, but let me spend those few hours which thou hast taken to thy self, to thy glory, that in the end my poor soul may reap the comfort of it. O Lord, send down thy holy Spirit into me, to bear witness that I am thy Childe, and shall be Heir of thy Kingdom with Christ Iesus; for whose sake, and in whose Name, I beseech thee to grant me all those things I have prayed for. Amen.

An evening Prayer for the Sabbath.

O Eternal, Ever-living and Ever-loving Lord God, from the bottom of my heart I have great cause to give thee continual thanks for the mercies of this day, thou hast preserved me by thy power, & thou hast dealt bountifully with my Soul, in that thou hast been pleased to refresh it with the wholesome food of thy Heavenly Word: O Lord, with the dew of thy Grace water that Word which I have heard and received, that I may grow thereby: O Lord forgive the evil which I have committed this day, I have done those things which I ought not to have done, and I have neglected those things which I ought to have done. Lord give me a heart to repent for every sin which I have committed against thee in this thy day. O Lord, stretch out thy hand over me, and preserve me this night from all evil: Preserve my body from death, and my soul from damnation: Compass me about on every side with thy grace, guide me in every thing that I shall undertake: let me undertake nothing to the dishonour of thy most holy Name, but in all things let me so demean my self here, that when I come to die, I may be assured to attain a being in thy Kingdom. O Lord grant all these Mercies to me, and whatever else thou seest needful for me, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for Monday Morning.

HOLY Lord God, I thy poor unworthy creature, do here prostrate my self before thee this morning, humbly entreating thee to look down with thy tender compassion on me: Pardon my sins, O Lord, and forgive mine iniquities, blot out my transgressions, and let them not come in remembrance with thee any more. Lord, as I have great cause to bewail my sins and wickedness, so I have also great cause to admire and adoze thee for all thy loving kindnesse unto me, more especially for preserving me this night past: O Lord, thou hast given me a quiet nights rest, blessed be thy Name for it. Thou hast raised my body from sleep of death, Lord raise my soul from the sleep of sin, and now in the beginning of the week, let me go about the Vocation thou hast set me in with chearfulnesse, and let me undertake nothing that is sinful, but in every thing let me have an eye to thee, so then to be certain, every thing which I shall take in hand shall prosper. O Lord, thou knowest what is needful for me, I beseech thee supply all my wants in that Fountain of Mercy the Lord Jesus Christ; in whom, and for whom my soul shall bless & magnifie thy holy name from this time forth, and for ever, Amen.

An Evening Prayer for Monday.

A Almighty God, Lord of heaven & Earth, thou who inhabitest Eternity, whose dwelling is in the highest Heavens, yet thou dost condescend to look down with a tender eye of pity and compassion upon poor sinful dust and ashes. O Lord, thou dost give infinite occasions to poor sinners day by day to renew their praises due to thy holy Name: O that I had a heart & a tongue to set forth the riches of thy mercies which thou dost daily bestow on me: thou dost every hour, O Lord, Lord giue fresh occasions to me to be more eager, and more diligent in pursuing those things which are good: That I could so lead my life here, that I might be sure of eternitie hereafter. Blessed be thy Name O Lord, for this daies mercies, Lord keep and preserve me this night; when I go to lye down to sleep, let me be so prepared, that if it were my last night I should sleep in this body, yet I might have assurance in thee; Lord keep me from all evil thoughts in þ longest night, from all frightful dreams which too often do disturb poor carnal flesh: When I awake, O Lord let me with holy David meditate on thy Word, and so no harm can come unto me. Finally, I beseech thee, O Lord, to guard, and defend me this night, that in the morning when I arise, I may render up my morning sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving unto thy holy Name, for all thy unspeakable Mercies which thou dost day and night bestow upon me: O Lord hear me, and in thy due time answer me, and all I beg upon the account of thy dear Son and my Saviour, in whose name & words, I conclude these my imperfect prayers, saying as he himself hath taught me, Our Father which art, &c.

A Prayer for Tuesday morning.

Holy Lord God, great is thy Name, and greatly above all others to be praised, but for poore sinful dust and ashes, to dare to adventure to come before so great a God, is high presumption; yet Lord I thy poore creature in and through the Merits of Jesus Christ my Saviour, do with all boldness cast my self at thy Throne of thy Grace, humbly imploring and most heartily begging for the assistance of thy holy Spirit: O Lord, I give thee humble and hearty thanks for thy preservation of me the night past. O Lord, though I do not deserve those favours from thee, yet for thy SONS sake, if it be thy blessed will, continue them to me: I beseech thee, O Lord, as thou hast hitherto, so yet continue a blessing to my undertakings, and make me continue faithful to thee to the end of my daies, that when I depart this life, I may be an Heir of the Kingdome of Heaven: This I beg in the name of thy Son, and my Saviour Jesus Christ the Righteous, to whom be ascribed, as is most due, all glory, honour, and praise both now and forevermore. Amen.

An Evening Prayer for Tuesday.

Most great, and most glorious incomprehensible Lord God, I thy poore unworthy creature am now about to offer up these my poore unworthy Prayers unto thy Divine Majesty, humbly and mercifully beseeching thee to pardon the sins which I have committed against thy Divine Majesty this day: Many and great have the sins of my Youth been ,

and in number even as the sands of the Seashore, yet Lord, thy mercies doth far surpass my sins : O Lord give me a heart to trust in thee, give me an understanding heart, that I may see the errors of my former life, and repent from the bottom of my heart, of all the evil I have committed against thee. And holy Lord, as I have great cause to bewail my sins, so have I far greater cause to bless thy name for all thy unspeakable mercies which thou dost daily bestow on me, more especially for the Mercies on this day : thou hast preserved me in life and health, blessed be thy Name for it; if it be thy blessed will watch over me this night, let thy holy Angels guard me, and let thy holy hand protect me ; and when I awake from my sleep, let my Meditations be on thy goodnesse towards me ; and all this I beg at thy hands mercifully be seaching thee to be a strong Tower of defence to me, and all for Jesus Christ his sake, thy Son, and my Saviour and Redeemer, from this time forth and for ever more. Amen.

A Prayer for Wednesday morning.

Blessed and praised be thy Name, O Lord God, for all thy unspeakable Mercies ;
which thou day by day, and night by night, dost freely bestow upon poor sinners: O Lord, what am I that thou shouldst so much as once cast a glimpse of favour on me? I am a poor worm, a frail creature, dust and ashes, nay more, a grievous sinner; yet O Lord thou hast compassion on me, thou hast mercifully preserved me this last night, I bless thy name for it; Lord keep me still, be thou a guide to me all along, & be thou an Overseer over me, to overlook me, so as to keep me from all deadly sin: Let my heart, O Lord, be sound right in undertaking nothing that is evil: let a watch befoze my mouth, that my tongue may utter no unclean thing: so guide and direct me in all things, that what I do, I may do to the glory of thy Name, and the comfort of my soul, and all this I beg in the Name of Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

An Evening Prayer for Wednesday.

O Lord God, Father of heaven and earth, give in fresh supplies of thy Spirit to thy poor creature, that I may daily and hourly praise thy Name for all thy loving kindnesse which thou dost every day bestow on me: thou art a God of comfort and consolation, thou hast been my guide all the day long, now I beseech thee be my Guardian all the night, make me to rest quietly, and when drowisie sleep vanisheth away, set my heart at work to meditate upon thy mercies, which in an abundant manner thou dost bestow daily on me. O Lord, awake my Soul, and let Christ enlighten me with the beams of his mercy ; teach me to do that which is right, make me to hate that which is evil : Keep me in thy paths that my feet slip not, hear me and have mercy on me, knit my heart unto thee, that I may fear thy Name: Plant me by the waterside, and let me bring forth fruit to thy honor and glory, to the comfort of my poor soul, for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

A Prayer for Thursday Morning.

A Almighty and most gracious God, I give thee hearty and humble thanks, in that thou hast been graciously pleased to give quiet rest to my poor sinful body, Lord if it be thy blessed will, give spiritual rest to my poor soul.
O Lord, thou hast commanded in thy holy word that none should be idle, but that we should be alwaies occupied with doing of good, I most humbly beseech thee that thine eyes may attend upon me daily, to defend me, comfort, and govern me in all my labors and undertakings: make me to bestow this day & the residue of my life, according to thy most ble-sed will and pleasure, setting thee alwaies before mine eyes, alwaies living in thy fear, and working that which may be acceptable in thy sight : This I beseech thee to grant me, and what else thou seest needful for me, for Jesus Christ his sake, my only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

An Evening Prayer for Thursday.

Most merciful God, and ever-lobing Father, thou which dost bestow so many Blessings on me, give me an understanding heart, and let my lips shew forth thy praises: O what a fatherly care hast thou had over me!
thou hast kept me from all dangers both of bodie & soul, thou hast given me food and raiment, and health, but above all, thou hast given the choicest of all thy Mercies, the Lord Jesus: O give me a heart that by faith I may lay hold on him, and on the blessed Promises thou hast made to all that believe in thee and in thy Son Jesus Christ: I beseech thee, O Lord, to grant me the guard of thy good Angels, to keep me this night and evermore; and grant when I shall sleep in death, my bodie may rest temporally, & my soul may live with thee eternally, to thy glorie and my comfozt: All which I beg at thy hands, for the merits of Jesus Christ my Savioz. Amen.

A Prayer for Friday Morning.

O Most merciful Father, seeing thou hast of thy great Mercie vouchsafed a quiet passage away of this night in rest to my body, grant I beseech thee, that I may bestow this day, and the residue of my life, wholly to thy service, so that all my thoughts, words, and works may redound wholly to thy glorie of thy name, and good example of others, O Lord, il-illuminate my understanding with the brightness of thy holie spirit, direct me in the waies of righteousness, so that whatsoever I do, my special care may be to walk in thy fear, to serve & honour thee all the daies of my life.

O Lord strengthen me against all the tempo-rations of Satan, keep me from all ill, and deliber me from all perils & dangers, whatsoever. I beseech thee O Lord, receive me into thy holy protection & then I need not fear no ill: Lord make me daily to go on in good, and to hate all evil: forgive me all my sins O Lord, and blot out all my transgressions, and let the little remaining part of my life, be spent to thy glorie, and to the comfort of my own immortal and never-dying soul: These my weak Petitions, O Lord, grant upon the account of thy Son, through whom I further call upon thee, saying as he hath taught me,
Our Father which art in Heaven, &c.

An Evening Prayer for Friday.

O Eternal God and most merciful father, who this day, & all the time of my life hitherto, hast most graciously defended and preserved my soul and body, and of thy loving kindness hast most plentifully provided for me a poor sinner, not onely in giving me a portion of thy Creatures, but also in that plentiful Redemption which thy most dear Son Christ Iesus hath purchased for me;

grant, O Lord unto me the assistance of thy grace and holy Spirit: Though my body, O Lord, take its natural rest, yet Lord knit my soul to thee; for in thee is the only true rest to be found. O Lord, let my soul rejoyce in thee, for in thee alone is Salvation to be found: O Lord, let thy mighty hand and outstretched arm be still my defence, thy mercy and loving kindness in Jesus Christ thy dear Son my Salvation, thy true and holy Word my instruction, thy Grace and holy Spirit my Comfort and Consolation unto the end, and in the end, through Jesus Christ my Lord and only Saviour. Amen.

A Morning Prayer for Saturday.

O Immortal and Everliving God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, I thy poor unworthy Servant desire and beg of thee to accept of my morning Sacrifice of Praise and Thanksgiving due unto thee, and thee alone, in that thou hast protected me, and defended me from all the evil that might have come upon me; thou hast refreshed my weary body this night past. I humbly intreat thee yet to add a further blessing unto me, that thou wilt be pleased to rouse up my soul from the sluggish nature of sin and evil, that I may walk in thy Commandments with all cheerfulness this day and evermore: Pardon, O Lord, all fore-past evil abominations of my life life and conuersation : cut off the root, leaves and boughs of the evil tree of my corrupt heart, put away all lust, doubtings and denyings of thy providence. Give me a sure hope, and the gracious pardon of my sins, and of everlasting life, that so long as I am in this world I may have a taste and feeling of it in my heart. O Lord, I beseech thee to send a blessing upon my labors: prepare my heart in all my business, that I may do it to the honor of thy Name, and go forward in thy fear, and finish it with thy blessing, that whatsoever I shall do may prosper: Grant this O Lord, for Jesus Christ his sake my Saviour. Amen.

An Evening Prayer for Saturday.

Blessing & glory be given to thee O Lord, most high and gracious God, for thy goodnesse bestowed upon me this day, this whole week, and all my whole life, thy Mercies have never yet failed me: O Lord, give me a thankful heart, never to forget thy loving kindness towards me, I beseech thee O Lord, be still my God, forgive all my sins & I have committed against thee, and grant for the future that I may serve thee in holinesse and newness of life: Sanctifie me with thy grace, and send down thy holy Spirit into me, to guide and direct me in all truth. And now, O Lord, the day is almost spent, and the night is at hand, bless me I beseech thee this night, and take me into thy custodie; Save me waking, and keep me sleeping, that I may both sleep and wake in peace and safety. Let the shadow of thy wings be my cover, the holie Ghost my Comfort, and thy holie Name my Rock and Defence against all evil. Prepare me, O Lord, for the day following, the holy Sabbath, the Hallowed day of thy rest, and to unlock the Mysteries of thy holy Word unto me, that I may therein see the things of thy glorious Majestie, learn the lessons of my own Duty, and rightly understand the certaintie of my Mortalitie, and the uncertaintie of the time when death shall seize upon me, that I may strive to live in thy fear, and die in thy favor, and be made partaker of those heavenly joyes which thou hast prepared for thy Saints to all eternitie. O Lord, grant these my desires, and what else thou knowest needful for me, for Jesus Christ his sake my only Advocate and Redeemer, concluding my imperfect prayers in that most absolute Form of Prayer which he himself hath taught us in his holie Gospel, saying, Our Father, &c.

A Prayer for the Kings Majesty, and His Royal Family.

O Almighty God, King of Kings, & Lord of Lords; High and Mighty Creatour, Ruler and Governour of all things, thou who doest

post from thy Throne behold all the Inhabitants of the whole earth; thou who rulest Princes as well as the meanest person on the Earth, I most humbly beseech thee to look down upon our most Gracious Sovereign Lord King CHARLES: Lord endue His Royal heart with the wisdom of Solomon, make him a joyful Prince to all his Subjects; let him be a Protector of all his people, that in truth & sinceritie do fear thy Name. Bless him, O Lord, in His Royal Consort Queen Katherine. Bless Him in all his Relations, make them all instruments of god to this Kingdom whereof we are Members: O Lord do good to them, and to all thy poor people all the world over, and all this we beg for the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ. Amen.

Here follows certain Graces before and after Meat.

Grace before Meat.

GRACIOUS Lord God, thou dost plentifully provide for us who are poor sinners, we beseech thy Name for it: Lord as thou feedest our bodies with these thy creatures, so satisfie our souls with thy heavenly food, and all for Jesus Christ his sake our only Saviour. Amen.

Another before Meat.

O Heavenly Father, and God of all Consolation, thou dost take care to provide food and raiment for our weak bodies, Lord give us hearts to look after something for the nourishment of our souls; and for these, and all other Mercies we have double cause to render all Glorie and Praise to thy holie Name, both now and for evermore. Amen.

Another before Meat.

Glorious God, in all our undertakings let us look upon thee the Creator of all things let us praise thy Name in an especial manner for all thy Mercies that thou at this time bestowest on us. Bless us in our natural food, but more especially in our spiritual, for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

Grace after Meat.

We thank thee, most merciful Father, for all thy loving kindness bestowed on us, more especially for the mercies of this day, in that thou hast plentifully refreshed our weak bodies; Lord strengthen our souls with thy heauenlie grace, and all for the honour of thy well-beloved Son, and my only Saviour Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Another after Meat.

Glorious Lord God, we return thee all humble and hearty thanks for these thy fatherly Mercies, in feeding of our natural bodies, Lord we beg the like kindness for our poor souls, that when we have finished this our natural life, we may enjoy a Being in Heaven, and all for the sake of Jesus Christ.
Amen.

Another after Meat.

The God of all Glorv and Power, who hath created us, and by the death of thy dear Son hath redeemed us, and hast at this time mercifully fed us, for these and all other Mercies let thy Name be blessed and praised both now and for evermore. Amen.

A short Catechism for Children, very necessary for private Families.

Quest. Who made thee?
Answ. God.

Quest. What is God?

Answ. He is Almighty, Maker, and Governour of all things.

The School of Learning.

Q. Wherefore did the Lord make thee ?

Answ. To serve him.

Quest. How oughtest thou to serve him ?

Answ. As he hath appointed in his Law.

Quest. Which be they ?

Answ. The keeping of the Ten Commandments, as they are appointed in the twentieth of Exodus.

Quest. Dost thou think that thou art able to fulfil these Commands ?

Answ. No, though I do all that I can, yet by reason of sin, I am daily a breaker and transgressor of those Laws.

Quest. What dost thou then deserve for the breach of these Laws ?

Answ. The Wrath of God, which is the destruction of bodie and soul.

Quest. How then wilt thou escape this punishment ?

Answ. Only by the death of Jesus Christ.

Qu. What dost thou believe concerning this Jesus Christ ?

Answ. I believe he is the only begotten of the Father, the eternal Son of God, and able to save sinners.

Quest. What hath Christ done for thee ?

Answ. He dyed for me.

Quest. If Christ were God, how could he dye ?

Answ. Christ was both God and man; as he

The School of Learning.

he was God, he could not die, but being man he dyed for my sins, and rose again for my Redemption.

Quest. Are all then saved by the death of Christ?

Ans. No: Only such are saved as by a lively faith lay hold on him.

Quest. What is a lively Faith.

Ans. A true belief, and a faithful relying on all the promises of God, and a steadfast belief that Christ died as well for thy sins as any other, if thou through faith dost lay hold on him.

Quest. What is the sum of your Faith?

Ans. It is the Creed.

Quest. How camest thou by this Faith?

Ans. Inwardly by the Holy Ghost, and outwardly by the Preaching of the Word.

Quest. How is that Faith increased and made strong in us?

Ans. By hearing the Word Preached, and using the Sacraments.

Quest. What be the Sacraments?

Ans. Sacraments be outward signs ordained by God, and are left as Seals and Pledges of these Benefits of our Salvation, which we receive in Christ to strengthen our Faith.

Quest. How many Sacraments are there?

Ans. Two; Baptism and the Lords Supper.

Quest.

The School of Learning.

Qu. What profit hast thou by Baptism?

Ans. I beleve by Baptism my sins are forgiven me, for as water doth wash the filth off my bodie, so I beleve the blood of Christ being sprinkled upon my Soul, by a lively faith, doth wash away my sins.

Qu. What profit hast thou by the Lords Supper?

Ans. As I receive the Bread and Wine into my body, to become wholly mine, so I beleve that my soul receiveth Christ Iesus, with his death and righteousnesse, to the sealing up of my salvation.

Quest. Seeing they that eat unworthily, eat and drink their own damnation, how shall I do to prepare my self for the right receiving of it?

Ans. 1. Examine thy self whether thou art in the faith of Iesus Christ, or no.

2. Whether thou findest thy heart truly grieved for sin, with inward hating and loathing thereof.

3. If any offences be betwixen thee and others, that you reconcile your self unto them & forgive them as Christ hath forgiven thee.

Quest. Is not Prayer a special means to increase your Faith?

Ans. Yea, it is a special help.

Quest. How oughtest thou to pray?

Ans. Only to God in the Name of Iesus Christ.

Quest.

Quest. What form of Prayer usest thou most?

Ans. That which the Lord himself hath taught us: Our Father which art, &c.

Q. How understandest thou this Prayer?

Ans. This Prayer is divided into six Petitions; three of them belong to Gods glory, the other three belong to us, wherein is contained all things that are necessarie for soul and bodie.

A short Prayer for a Familie.

O Eternal God & most merciful Father, which givest to them that want, and comfortest those that are in distress, and forgiveest them that truly repent, we thy poor creatures sue unto thee for grace, hoping in thy mercie towards us: keep us, O Lord this day, and forgive us all our sins in the blood of thy Son, teach us to be sorry for them, and separate them from us, who would separate us from thee: O Lord make us to hunger & thirst after righteousness, that our first care may be to know thy truth, and let us so profit in Christs School, that in sickness we may finde patience, in prison joy, in poverty contentment. and in all things hope: Prosper, O Lord, our labor and undertaking, that in that we do undertake, we may do nothing that is sinfully evil: Lord let loving affections ong

ons grow one towards another: let us love our brethren and pray for them, and they for us: Lord, thou hast commanded that we should not only pray for our selves, but for thine all the World over; Lord blesse thy Church in all places, where ever it is dispersed or distressed, be thou their refuge and defence.
 Lord, look upon this sinful Nation wherein we live: Lord bless the Kings Majesty, with His Royal Quēn, and the rest of the Royal Family, make them Instruments of good unto this Kingdome. Lord blesse the faithful Ministers of thy Word, give them heavenly wisdom, that they may dispense the Word in righteousness to all that hear them. Lastly, O Lord, give a blessing to this poor Family, blesse us from the highest to the lowest, make us all thy Servants, that so we may rejoyce daily in thee our Saviour. Lord guide us in thy truth, and direct us in thy paths that we may never go astray: All these mercies we beg for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord, in whose words we further call upon thee, saying, Our Father which art in Heaven, &c.
